

Matterport Launches Pro Series Camera Rental Program in North America to Deliver Flexibility and Scale To Customers

October 24, 2023

In partnership with Matterfix, the new rental program provides affordable and flexible access to Matterport's state-of-the-art 3D cameras and digital twins

SUNNYVALE, Calif., Oct. 24, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Matterport, Inc. (Nasdaq: MTTR) announced a new camera rental program to simplify and expand access to Pro3 and Pro2 cameras and accessories. The new program creates flexibility for new and existing Matterport customers, offering turn-key rental packages, as well as options to scale for existing Matterport customers.

Created in partnership with Matterfix, a trusted Matterport camera repair partner, anyone in North America can rent a Pro2 or Pro3 starting as low as $149, providing cost-friendly access to Matterport's state-of-the-art 3D cameras. In addition, all rentals come with an included 30-day Professional SaaS plan, allowing customers to upload and store capture data, create interactive 3D floor plans, add tags and notes, as well as access cloud storage, video creation tools, and other features of the Matterport platform.

Matterport's Pro Series Camera Rental Program provides customers with the opportunity to test out a Pro Series camera and Matterport subscription before making a long-term investment, or flexibly scale their existing equipment to suit the job's capture requirements.

Rentals are available in the form of two kit configurations for each of the cameras.

- Essentials Kit: Includes Pro2 or Pro3 Series Camera, 30-day Professional SaaS plan, protective case and relevant power options (batteries or charger vary by device)
- Complete Kit: Includes everything in the Essentials Kit, plus a tripod and tablet capture device.

"Matterport's Pro Series Camera Rental Program is a fantastic opportunity for anyone to experience the full power of Matterport's technology," said Abhijit Limaye, Sr. Director Product Management, Matterport. "This program provides customers maximum flexibility to scale their tools for whatever the job requires, at a price that meets every budget."
