

Matterport Appoints Chief Accounting Officer from Grubhub

July 19, 2021

Brandt Kucharski to lead external financial reporting and technical accounting

SUNNYVALE, Calif., July 19, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Matterport, Inc., the leading spatial data company driving the digital transformation of the built world, which has entered into a definitive agreement for a business combination with Gores Holdings VI (NASDAQ: GHVI, GHVIU, and GHVIW), today announced the appointment of Brandt Kucharski as Chief Accounting Officer. Kucharski will spearhead Matterport's external financial reporting, technical accounting, tax and corporate internal controls functions. He will also serve as the Principal Accounting Officer under SEC guidelines when Matterport lists as a public company.

"Brandt is an integral addition to Matterport's senior management team. We look forward to his leadership and deep accounting expertise as we become a public company, continue to execute on our growth strategy and create value for all of our stakeholders," said JD Fay, Chief Financial Officer at Matterport.

Kucharski specializes in IPO preparation and joins Matterport from food delivery giant Grubhub, where he was Chief Accounting Officer for more than a decade including through its $2.04 billion IPO and most recently its $7.3 billion acquisition by Europe's Just Eat Takeaway.com, which created the world's largest food delivery company outside China. Prior to Grubhub, Kucharski was the Director of Transaction Services for international consulting firm SAGIN, LLC, where he specialized in IPO preparation and execution and mergers and acquisitions. He has led six successful IPOs and more than 50 transactions with notable clients, such as CDW, JP Morgan Chase, Marriott and Westin.

"I am excited to join Matterport at such a pivotal time and apply my experience to guide its financial operations as a public company," said Kucharski. "I look forward to working with the team to continue to build upon the company's exceptional growth across the board and execute against its strategic priorities to fuel its global expansion."

Kucharski currently serves on the boards of the Northern Illinois University Accounting Department, Evolveher, and Prohabits. He is also Chairman for Holiday Heroes Foundation. He holds a Masters of Accounting from Northern Illinois University and is a Certified Public Accountant.

Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws with respect to the proposed business combination between Gores Holdings VI, Inc. ("Gores") and Matterport, Inc. ("Matterport"), including statements regarding the benefits of the proposed business combination, the anticipated timing of the proposed business combination, the services offered by Matterport and the markets in which Matterport operates, business strategies, debt levels, industry environment, potential growth opportunities, the effects of regulations and Gores' or Matterport's projected future results. These forward-looking statements generally are identified by the words "believe," "project," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "intend," "strategy," "future," "forecast," "opportunity," "plan," "may," "should," "will," "would," "will be," "will continue," "will likely result," and similar expressions (including the negative versions of such words or expressions). Forward-looking statements are predictions, projections and other statements about future events that are based on current expectations and assumptions and, as a result, are subject to risks and uncertainties. Many factors could cause actual future events to differ materially from the forward-looking statements in this document, including but not limited to: (i) the risk that the proposed business combination may not be completed in a timely manner or at all, which may adversely affect the price of Gores' securities; (ii) the risk that the proposed business combination may not be completed by Gores' business combination deadline and the potential failure to obtain an extension of the business combination deadline if sought by Gores; (iii) the failure to satisfy the conditions to the consummation of the proposed business combination, including the approval of the proposed business combination by Gores' stockholders, the satisfaction of the minimum trust account amount following redemptions by Gores' public stockholders and the receipt of certain governmental and regulatory approvals; (iv) the effect of the announcement or pendency of the proposed business combination on Matterport's business relationships, performance, and business generally; (v) risks that the proposed business combination disrupts current plans of Matterport and potential difficulties in Matterport employee retention as a result of the proposed business combination; (vi) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against Gores or Matterport related to the agreement and plan of merger or the proposed business combination; (vii) the ability to maintain the listing of Gores' securities on the NASDAQ; (viii) the price of Gores' securities, including volatility resulting from changes in the competitive and highly regulated industries in which Matterport plans to operate, variations in performance across competitors, changes in laws and regulations affecting Matterport's business and changes in the combined capital structure; and (ix) the ability to implement business plans, forecasts, and other expectations after the completion of the proposed business combination, and identify and realize additional opportunities. The foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive. You should carefully consider the foregoing factors and the other risks and uncertainties that are described in Gores' final proxy statement/prospectus contained in the registration statement on Form S-4, including those under "Risk Factors" therein, and other documents filed by Gores from time to time with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). These filings identify and address other important risks and uncertainties that could cause actual events and results to differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made. Readers are cautioned not to put undue reliance on forward-looking statements, and Gores and Matterport assume no obligation and, except as required by law, do not intend to update or revise these forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise. Neither Gores nor Matterport gives any assurance that either Gores or Matterport will achieve its expectations.

Additional Information and Where to Find It

In connection with the proposed business combination, Gores has filed a registration statement on Form S-4 that includes a proxy statement/prospectus of Gores. The Form S-4 was declared effective by the SEC on June 17, 2021.
